

Sinclair Broadcasting is using the public's airwaves to advance their own personal political agenda. This practice must be stopped and discouraged in the future. It is reprehensible. This is not their first infraction of this kind but it is certainly the most blatant! Sinclair must either be heavily fined or else forced to publicly retract their actions and apologize to their viewers.